

Stroke: Know the facts, save a life

Always B.E. F.A.S.T.

B Is the person off-BALANCE?

E Is there difficulty seeing, especially in one EYE?

F Is one side of the FACE droopy?

A Is one ARM weaker than the other?

S Is SPEECH slurred or confused?

T It's TIME to call 911.

 Time is critical

Someone in the U.S. has a stroke about once every

40 SECONDS

A stroke kills someone in the U.S. about once every

4 MINUTES

#5 Stroke is the No. 5 cause of death in the United States

Patients treated within 90 minutes of a stroke are 2.8 times more likely to have positive three-month results than those untreated

2.8x

1.9 MILLION

brain cells are lost every minute of delay in treating a stroke

 Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital

SOURCES: American Heart Association, American Stroke Association, The Journal of Emergency Medical Services, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Last updated October 2015

