HCMH Foundation and Yadkin Valley Chamber Host 8th Annual Yadkin Valley Wine Auction

The Yadkin Valley Chamber of Commerce again sponsored the annual Yadkin Valley Wine Auction held to benefit Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital Foundation. The project chosen this year was the hospital's Sharing the Vision Campaign. The campaign lends support to the hospital's recent building project. The auction helps connect food and wine enthusiasts with the Yadkin Valley Wine Festival held the next day.

This year the Wine Auction was at Ole Beau Golf and Country Club. The auction is the premier charity event held the night before the Yadkin Valley Wine Festival. "Following the first wine festival, our foundation was asked to be the signature charity event to promote the annual Yadkin Valley Wine Festival. The Foundation was happy to take on this challenge and we are thrilled to have the commitment of the winery owners and the Yadkin Valley Chamber of Commerce," stated Jeannette Hendrick, Foundation Executive Director/Director of Development at Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital. The popular fundraiser includes a live auction, silent auction, and exclusive offerings sure to please food and wine enthusiasts and travel buffs.

"The enthusiasm from last year's event carried forward to this year's event and we have already had gift donations and commitments for next year's auction," said Hendrick. Next year's auction will be held at Ole Beau Golf and Country Club, Friday night, May 20, 2011.

The Yadkin Valley Wine Auction offers a plethora of gifts. From rare wines to jewelry to furniture to original art ... to incredible experiences. For the 2nd consecutive year now, Hugh Chatham’s Director of Dietary and Environmental Services has purchased what he terms “an incredible experience” from the Wine Auction. Warren Bates and his son, Michael, are pictured at their day of Bass Fishing guided by Kellogg’s™ Pro, Alvin Shaw, on the Cheez-its™ Boat catching the big ones at Lake Norman. Shaw provides tackle, a gourmet lunch, and plenty of “Pro’s Pointers” beneficial for the novice or the experienced fisherman. Feel free to contact the Foundation Office at 527.7094 if you feel you could donate an experience to the 2011 Wine Auction.

Sertomans Dedicate Cardiac and Pulmonary Waiting Room

The Tri-County Sertoma Club has given the Hospital's new Heart and Lung Diagnostics and Rehab Waiting Room in honor of longtime Sertoman Charles Madison. Through the years, Charles has served as the club's president, secretary, and district governor. Sertoma Club liaison Jeff Cape said, "We decided to do something special for Charles because he is so special. We felt it was appropriate to name this particular waiting room for Charles because of his success with heart-related issues." He was North Carolina's 5th successful heart transplant at Wake Forest Baptist Medical Center twenty-four years ago. "At that time transplants were new and we all believed Charles' would be successful knowing of his positive attitude, determination, and love for life," said Cape.

Charles has been a member of Sertoma since its charter in 1986. After serving in the military, Charles took on a middle school teaching career in the late 1950s at North Elkin School. He later taught at Starmount High School and Surry Community College. Currently serving on the Board of Surry Community College, Charles was the Chairman of the Board in 2008.

Capital Campaign Update

Members of the Hugh Chatham Capital Campaign Executive Committee recognized Dr. Robert Dawson, Campaign Consultant, for his service to the Capital Campaign that helped fund the new patient tower. Dr. Jim Harrell, Sr. presented Dr. Dawson with a plaque in recognition of his service to the campaign. "Dr. Dawson came to us when we first started talking about the campaign," Dr. Harrell said. "He did an assessment of our status, what we hoped to accomplish and the feasibility of a campaign."

"Through his advice we have been able to see great success. Although Dr. Dawson's work is finished here, what he helped us accomplish will remain to provide the very best in healthcare to our area." David Loving, Hospital Chief Executive Officer, thanked Dr. Dawson for his hard work and effort on behalf of the hospital.

"Dr. Dawson helped bring one of the most innovative new medical facilities in the area to fruition." Loving said. "With his efforts, Hugh Chatham can continue to provide the very best medical care to local residents and those in the surrounding area."

Dr. Dawson has been a consultant working in the medical field for over 20 years and has worked on 20 campaigns to raise money for healthcare. "Over the next 4 years work will continue on the campaign and we are thankful to have had Dr. Dawson pave the way for future efforts," stated Jeannette Hendrick, Foundation Executive Director and Director of Development at Hugh Chatham.

Members of the Capital Campaign Executive Committee and other hospital officials met for a dinner and recognition of the contribution of Dr. Robert Dawson to the capital campaign for the new medical tower at Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital.
